Hi [REDACTED],

LAWA does not have any documents that are responsive other than what we sent.

thanks. I'm not sure how an email from December 2019 is responsive to a request from October 2019, but OK.

None of these records address the question, though, which is why TCP operators pick up inside the airport. Did that just happen by magic or did someone decide it when LAXit was being planned? If the latter, which I suspect is more likely, surely there's some written trace of the decision.

Please assist me, therefore, in overcoming the practical obstacles in obtaining these records which, as the law allows, I've described by content.

Thanks again!
